

DETERMINED to Soar

Julia D. Lyons

Julia D. Lyons relocated to Spartanburg from the Northeast in 1996 with her late husband, Bernard E. Brooks and immediately resumed her career in Human Resources with Hardee's which was a division of Denny's and later with BB&T and the United Way of the Piedmont.

She has a BS from North Carolina Central University, Durham, North Carolina and an MS from City University of New York. She is semi-retired and is currently consulting with individual clients and agencies on human resources issues. She has over thirty years of experience in human resources with major corporations, public accounting firms, banking, food service and nonprofit agencies.

She currently serves on the board of the Spartanburg Historical Association and Fifty Upstate. She has served on the board of Converse Board of Visitors, Chapman Culture Center, Girl Scouts of the Piedmont, Mobile Meals, Salvation Army, Spartanburg Art Museum, Spartanburg Regional Foundation -Executive Committee and The Spartanburg Chapter of The Links, Inc.

She is a graduate of Leadership Spartanburg. Julia is a member of Spartanburg Business and Professional Women and serves as Chair of the ARC Committee of her homeowner's association.

Contact:

juliadlyons@gmail.com
(864) 415-1420